Dedication to Mr. Robert Colby 1970-1990

We the class of 1991 proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Robert Colby. Mr. Colby, a reading and english teacher, was struck by a massive stroke that totally disabled him for a period of time. With his heroic determination and effort he returned to the classroom for many years.

Mr. Colby was greatly admired by his students. He would relate to them at their level and understanding. He was an excellent teacher, but he was more than just a teacher, he was our friend. He was greatly appreciated for his sense of humor and even on his bad days he had a smile on his face.

Mr. Colby was truly a dedicated teacher, who daily put forth a courageous effort and was a constant inspiration to his students and colleagues. He will be greatly missed.

Mr. John Babula's dedication to McCann — the students, the staff, and the building will always be remembered. Anything you ever asked John to do, was done immediately, in an always excellent manner.

For over 25 years Mr. B has been a teacher, friend, and leader to the student's of McCann. He always gave 110%, and expected the same from his students. You could always hear him in the halls- keeping his kids under control saying "You hear me?" - "Come on, come on, move it!"

The past and present PM students are really sad to see Mr. Babula leave McCann and we would like to say thank you for all your help in teaching us over the past years.

Good luck in the future Mr. B - enjoy your vacations!
